Plaintiff,

COMPLAINT

LIBERTY LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF BOSTON,

Defendant.

-----X

Plaintiff, by James Sawyer, Esq., his attorney, complaining of the defendant, alleges the following, upon information and belief:

1. Defendant is a foreign corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state of New Hampshire.
2. Defendant maintains a place of business in Nassau County, New York.
3. Defendant is licensed to conduct insurance business in the state of New York.
4. Defendant issued group disability income policy number GF3-850-290449-01 (the "Policy"), naming Ryder System, Inc. as sponsor, which Policy was in effect prior to and on September 20, 2013 and remains in effect.
5. Plaintiff was an employee of Ryder System Inc. as of September 20, 2013.
6. On September 20, 2013, plaintiff sustained multiple, permanent, protracted and permanently disabling injuries in a motorcycle accident.
7. The injuries sustained by plaintiff in the September 20, 2013 accident included, but are not limited to the following: right lower extremity peroneal palsy and extensive soft tissue injury to the right leg; abnormal steppage gait making it difficult to walk, climb up or down stairs, walk on uneven surfaces or stand for prolong periods; loss of sensation in the lateral leg below the knee; nerve damage preventing plaintiff from ever regaining a normal gait or ability to engage in prolonged standing; right foot drop; chronic pain; shoulder pain; leg fracture and hematomas; muscle skeletal injury to the left shoulder and right leg; depression; malaise and fatigue; insomnia; stress; pain under the right knee cap; lack of sleep; swelling in the right leg; joint pain, limitations of movement, numbness, stiffness and weakness; major depressive disorder of a chronic and symptomatic nature; inability to concentrate; broken shoulder; torn rotator cuff; and ankle injury.

8. In addition to the injuries sustained in the accident, as of February 17, 2016 and continuing to date, plaintiff has suffered from and continues to suffer from additional medical conditions, including hypertension, hyperlipidemia, fatty liver, anxiety, depression, herniated disc at C5-6, and compression fracture of L1.

9. After satisfying the 150 day elimination period for long term benefits under the Policy, defendant approved and paid long term disability benefits commencing February 18, 2014 and ending February 17, 2016.

10. Defendant denied and failed to pay plaintiff continued long term disability benefits under the Policy notwithstanding that plaintiff continued and continues to remain permanently disabled from any occupation.

11. Plaintiff appealed the denial of continued long term benefits.

12. Defendant by letter dated September 14, 2016 denied plaintiff's appeal and maintained its decision to deny long term disability benefits for any period after February 17, 2016.

13. Defendant's denial of long term disability benefits, both the original denial and on appeal, was a material breach of its contractual obligations under the Policy, was not made in good faith, was an abuse of discretion and was arbitrary and capricious, including for the following reasons: plaintiff was in fact and remains unable to perform, with reasonable continuity, the material and substantial duties (including responsibilities normally required to be performed in any occupation and which cannot be reasonably eliminated or modified) of any occupation, and defendant had a conflict of interest concerning the original denial and denial of the appeal of the original denial of benefits.

14. By reason of the above, plaintiff was and is entitled to long term disability benefits under the policy after February 17, 2016 until plaintiff's 65th birthday – April 18, 2024.

15. Plaintiff is entitled to monthly benefits from on and after February 17, 2016 until his 65th birthday, the amount of which to date is not presently known, but is believed to be 60% of his basic monthly income as of September 20, 2013.

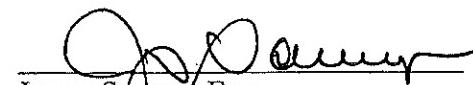

16. A justiciable controversy exists between the parties regarding plaintiff's entitlements under the Policy.

17. By reason of the above, plaintiff is entitled to his reasonably incurred attorneys fees and expenses in prosecuting this action.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff requests judgment against defendant as follows: declaring the rights and obligations of the parties under the Policy (including that plaintiff was and is entitled to disability payments after February 17, 2016 until his 65th birthday) in an amount equal to 60% of his basic monthly income as of September 20, 2013, interest at 9% per annum from the date each payment was due, his reasonably incurred attorney's fees in pursuing this action, the costs and disbursements of this action and such other and further relief as the Court deems proper.
